Good Afternoon and Welcome to Kiwanis

Kiwanis Objects

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved by Kiwanis club delegates at the 1924 International Convention in Denver, Colorado. Through the decades, they have remained unchanged.

To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.

To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.

To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.

To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.

To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.

TODAY'S SONG

SMILE

Smile and the world
smiles with you sing a song.

Don't be weary,
just be cheery all day long.

Whenever your trials,
your troubles and your cares seem to be more than you can really bear.

Smile and the world
smiles with you sing a song.

Local Kiwanis Club collecting used cell phones to raise money for free phone calls home for military

Published November 29, 2011, in the Inland Valley Daily Bulletin

ONTARIO, CALIFORNIA—It's a long way from Euclid Avenue to American military bases around the world, but members of the Ontario Parkway Kiwanis Club have a way to sharply reduce that distance.

Club members have joined with the nonprofit Cell Phones for Soldiers Inc. to collect used cellular phones that can be converted into free telephone time for military members serving around the world.

On Saturday morning, there will be a Kiwanis booth collecting cell phones at the corner of D Street and Euclid Avenue as part of the Christmas on Euclid celebration, said Ken Morse, community service chairman for the club.

Each cell phone, working or not, will be shipped to AT&T which in turn will provide the Cell Phone for Soldiers group gift cards that military members can use to phone loved ones at home.

"And we've gotten FedEx to ship as many as 30 or 40 pounds of the cell phones to AT&T for free," said Morse.

Morse learned about the cell phone program while attending a Kiwanis convention in San Diego earlier this year.

Since then, he and the Ontario club, joining the 10 Kiwanis clubs in the group's Division 15, began serving as collectors for the used phones.

Morse said the program originated in 2004 when two young teens heard about a soldier, worried about a sick child, who ran up a huge phone bill calling home. The two -- Robbie and Brittany Bergquest of Norwell, Mass. -- raised money with friends by holding yard sales and other means to pay off his $1,500 phone bill.

From that start, Cell Phones for Soldiers Inc. has collected 8.3 million cell phones and provided troops more than 114 million minutes of free phone time.

He said the club will have its usual booth Saturday in which they give out free children's books to kids up to age 13 as part of its program to promoting reading to young people.

Information about the club is available from President Doug Cogan.

Beignets, Mardi Gras, Kiwanians—oh my!

It's sensory overload in this little corner of the American South. Jazz fills the streets, mingling with the aroma of hot beignets. Pralines stick in your teeth as you watch the riverboats paddle by. It's a place like no other. It's New Orleans. And you're different here.

So come be a part of the big crowd that's expected in New Orleans for convention! Experience the workshops, entertainment, business and celebration of 25 years of women in Kiwanis. Together, let's recognize our successes and make plans for the future.

Stimulate your senses in New Orleans, June 28-July 1!

TODAY'S SONG

Joy to the World

Joy to the world! the Lord is come;
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
and makes the nations prove
the glories of His righteousness,
and wonders of His love,
and wonders of His love,
and wonders, wonders of His love.
